A.L.I. Technologies Inc.

A.L.I. Technologies Inc. (“A.L.I.”) exhibited the Luxury Air Cruiser, XTURISMO Limited Edition at Tokyo Comic Convention 2022 (“Tokyo Comic Con 2022”), which was held at Makuhari Messe from November 25 to 27, 2022. The exhibition at Tokyo Comic Con 2022 marked the global unveiling of XTURISMO's new custom color, Nocturne Black.

At the special exhibition booth, XTURISMO Limited Edition was set up alongside a life-size figure of popular Star Wars characters, Darth Vader and astromech droid props including R2-D2. The exhibition also featured a monitor showing a recent flight demonstration held in Detroit, USA, to show the fun and excitement of transportation that can be experienced through air mobility. The customized color, Nocturne Black, gives the XTURISMO Limited Edition a chic finish that accentuates its sleek and stylish shape. Fused with the world view of STAR WARS movie series, it created an exhibition space with a futuristic feel.

Hayden Christensen, who played Anakin Skywalker in the series, and Daniel Logan, who played Boba Fett, both attended the event and expressed interest in the XTurismo exhibition. A.L.I. believes that the exhibition at Tokyo Comic Con 2022 was a good opportunity to display XTURISMO Limited Edition to the general public and demonstrate the coming next generation of air mobility.
